

Carsten and Marge at Cornell Reunion 1963

As you read this, you will have put the rigors of football behind, but as it is being written I have fresh memories of two great Cornell football weekends. While the games did not produce winning margins on the field, all the '50s I observed were having a glorious time. At Homecoming we had a fine class block which included Stan Rodwin, Dave Weatherby, Carsten Borglum, Frank Zurn, Dave Kennedy, Bryan Bernart, Anson Stone, John Reas, Dick Hollobough, Henry Mertz, Frank Clifford, Dave Dingle and Ben Williams—most of them with their lovely wives. Heard at the game, Zurn to Post: "Come on, cheer. Don't you remember what it was like to be down there trying to get a bunch of silent, blank faces to yell?"

Interesting that they didn't mention that Marge was also a Cornell alumni
