

Christen Borglum Obituary Translated

A sudden death in Aarhus.

Some young brothers (note: a brother is a Baptist church member) have come to Aarhus to perform their Military service, including a son of Brother Børglum of Kongerslev (South Aalborg Ward).

He was in the Artillery, and we were happy to see him among us.

Unfortunately, he lasted only a short time, because Saturday March 29th he died of Meningitis.

After the captain's statements at a small solemn service at the hospital where he died here at Aarhuskasernen, Wednesday, April 2, his earthly remains were escorted by his battery, with the Captain and the Premier Lieutenant at the head, from his apartment to the train, to be sent to his hometown.

The slow-moving train slowed down through the town.

"So teach us to count our days that we come to Wisdom in the heart".

K. Pott.
